The 2nd Convention of Electrical & Electronics Engineering Students & Young Professionals in Israel (IEEEI-SYP 2016)

June 02, 2016, Tel-Aviv University

CALL FOR PAPERS

The IEEE Israel Student Section together with IEEE Young Professionals in Israel are pleased to announce the 2nd graduate student and YP convention (IEEEI-SYP), which continues the new tradition that was started last year. The IEEEI-SYP convention gives students the opportunity to present their research in a professional, yet casual environment. The convention is a platform for meetings and exchange of ideas between students in adjacent research fields, and between students and senior researchers and industry professionals.

The program includes two keynote speakers, as well as a poster session on today's state-of-the-art research conducted by graduate students from around the country. In addition, a job fair targeting specifically graduate students in the various fields of Electrical and Computer Engineering is planned to take place with the participation of leading high-tech companies. The names of companies that will participate in this event will be posted at a later stage.

The convention is free of charge, but advance registration is required at the convention website.
Light food and refreshments will be served.

Keynote speakers

- Aharon Aharon, CEO of Apple Israel
- Inon Brecha, ex-CEO of PrimeSense
